

Colorado Exempt Property and Homestead Exemption
13-54-102 Property Exempt
(1) The following property is exempt from levy and sale under writ of attachment or writ of execution:
(a)	Clothing	$ 1,500
(b)	Watches, jewelry	$ 2,000
(c)	Personal books, family photos	$ 1,500
(d)	Burial site, mausoleum space	one per person
(e)	Household goods	$ 3,000
(f)	Provisions, fuel	$ 600
(g)	Farming/ranching livestock, equipment	$ 50,000
(h)	Military income or pension arising from war time	No limit
(h.5)	Military equipment owned by National Guard members	No limit
(i)	Stock in trade, supplies, books, tools, equipment used in debtor's occupation	$ 20,000
(j)1	Motor vehicle(s) or bicycles kept and used	$ 5,000
(j)2	Motor vehicle(s) or bicycles kept and used by elderly/disabled	$ 10,000
(k)	Libraries of a professional person	$ 3,000
(l)1	Life insurance, cash value, before 48-month lookback period	$ 50,000
(l)2	Life insurance death benefits	No limit
(m)	Fire & casualty claim proceeds on exempt property	Exempt limits
(n)	Personal injury claim proceeds, minus treatment and collections	No limit
(o)	Federal/State tax refund from earned income/child tax credit	Full amount
(p)	Professionally prescribed health aids	No limit
(q)	Awards received under a crime victim's reparation law	No limit
(r)	Security deposits or utility deposits held by third parties	No limit
(s)	Property and funds held in pension, retirement, IRA accounts	No limit
(t)	Property under judgement claim for unpaid state income tax on pension	Claim amount
(u)	Court ordered payments for domestic support, child support	Court amount
(v)	Disability benefits or proceeds	$ 3,000/month
38-41-201 Homestead Exemptions
	Homestead occupied as a home by owner or owner's family	$ 60,000
	Homestead occupied as a home by elderly (age 60) or disabled owner or dependent	$ 90,000
This is an extract of Colorado laws, not to be used or considered as legal advice.
For legal advice, consult with an experienced attorney.
For a Free Consultation, visit our website: AdvisorFinancialServices.com
Copyright 2008 Advisor Financial Services (LLC) All rights reserved.		